Lady LaKendra Harris was born and raised in Fitzgerald, GA and is an Air Force veteran. Lady LaKendra is married to Dr. Fredrick J. Harris and they share three handsome, gifted and anointed sons together; Marquez, Christian and Marley.

This powerhouse of a woman has faithfully and humbly served the Kingdom of God for over 15 years. She is a certified life coach, intercessory prayer warrior, prophetic seer and prophetic scribe. She teaches and trains in spiritual warfare, prayer and intercession, dreams and visions to the people of God. As a prophetic scribe, Lady LaKendra writes warfare manuals and activation prayers through the leading of the Holy Spirit. She's called a spiritual mentor, spiritual mother and leader to those whom God has assigned in her life. Lady LaKendra is a visionary and serves heavily in Administration providing workshops to those who want to excel the operational flow of their ministries.

Lady LaKendra is also a forerunner in market place ministry evangelizing by Godly example through actions and the love of Christ in corporate America. Her passion is to serve without reservation in any capacity deemed necessary by our Lord and Savior, as obedience is better than sacrifice. She serves along side her husband at Without Limits Ministries International. It's an honor and privilege to serve the Kingdom of God.
